

NGNA FELLOWS PROGRAM

APPLICATION

INTRODUCTION

Fellow status is an honor conferred by the National Gerontological Nursing Association (NGNA) on individuals who apply and are selected for this recognition. Fellow status recognizes outstanding leadership in gerontological nursing and distinguished contributions to the field. Contributions to the field might include participation/leadership in NGNA (required) or those made through practice, teaching, research, administration, consultation, and/or other public service.

The NGNA Board of Directors confers recognition as a Fellow upon recommendation of the NGNA Fellows Selection Committee. The total number of NGNA Fellows shall not exceed 10 percent of the total number of NGNA members.

ELIGIBILITY

Individuals at all stages of career development and with all types of educational backgrounds and professional experiences are eligible to apply for Fellow status. Applicants must be members of NGNA for at least 5 years. Fellows must document a record of significant achievement and contributions to gerontological nursing. Applications must be accompanied by a check, payable to NGNA, in the amount of $70.00 to cover the costs of processing.

Applicants for Fellow status must document accomplishments in at least three of the following five areas via their application, resume/CV, and letters of endorsement:

1. REQUIRED FOR ALL APPLICANTS: Significant contributions to NGNA (e.g., board leadership, committee leadership or membership, chapter leadership, presentations at NGNA annual conventions, attendance at NGNA annual conventions, sustained active membership).
2. Unique and outstanding contributions to gerontological nursing.
3. Notable contributions to practice, education, research, administration, or consultation (whichever fits the individual's primary role).
4. Status or recognition among the individual's peers (honors and awards received).
5. Special contributions to the community or other public service in the area of gerontology (e.g., service to a gerontology-related organization).

ENDORSEMENT

1. Candidates must be endorsed by three (3) nursing professionals. At least two (2) must be current or former members of the NGNA Board of Directors.
2. Each endorser must submit a letter of recommendation which addresses one or more of the selected areas of contribution.

SELECTION PROCESS

A Call for Applications for Fellow status will be distributed through the NGNA newsletter and by email announcement. The Call for Applications for Fellow status also will be distributed to the NGNA Chapter Presidents.

All applications for Fellow status must be received in NGNA National Office no later than June 2, 2016. Incomplete applications will not be considered.

Members of the Fellows Selection Committee will review all applications and recommend candidates to the NGNA Board of Directors for approval. A maximum of 10 candidates will be recommended for approval as Fellows each year. All candidates whose applications are not recommended for approval, including those whose applications were incomplete, are encouraged to submit an application the following year.

Candidates whose applications are approved by the NGNA Board of Directors shall be notified no later than July 15. Selected candidates will be admitted to Fellow status during the Awards Luncheon at the NGNA annual convention and are encouraged to attend the annual convention.

RESPONSIBILITY OF FELLOWS

NGNA Fellows are recognized as leaders and valued members of the organization. Responsibilities of group members include:

- Support the goals and mission of NGNA.
- Provide leadership in addressing issues that impact health and well-being of older adults and age-related health issues in cooperation with NGNA.
- Contribute to the needs of the organization by offering service and expertise as desired, needed, or requested by the NGNA Board.
- Communicate issues of concern to the NGNA Board of Directors.
- Participate in activities of the Fellows.

Specific actions that would help meet these responsibilities are listed below:

Support the goals and mission of NGNA.
